No "Big 1"
The modestly displayed by Capt. Stone Monday won for him many friends. Nothing is more disgusting than the fellows who want to be the "Big 1" in everything, and if he can't be "Boss" he won't be anything. Capt. Stone is far from this, and is a plain, humble citizen, just what the people like.

Save Money.
Come in Monday and get a suit of all wool goods at shoddy prices. They will wear you twice as long as common goods. If you buy of Howard Tailoring Company you will get a number 1 hat, with a suit, or a fine pair of suspenders, with a pair of pants, free. No change in prices.
M. D. HUGHES, Agent.

R. B. Surveyor.
Secretary Jno. M. Farra received a letter from Supt. Spencer, of the Southern, stating his chief engineer was still in the south running some lines, but he would be here just as soon as possible. It is expected he will come during this month. Everything is in readiness and no time will be lost in starting over the line when he arrives.

The Colored Folks.
All the colored lodges and old soldiers turned out Tuesday afternoon and marched to their Cemetery, where they placed flowers on graves of their departed brethren. The Cuban Drill was a feature of the day and much enjoyed. The men drilled well, under Capt. W. H. Harris and showed careful training.

The Protracted Meeting.
Ed. Powell was compelled to return to Louisville Sunday, and his place in the Christian protracted meeting was taken by Eld. Loyd. The meeting has continued through the week with unusual interest, and the church has been filled at each appointment. Eld. Loyd is a fine speaker, and is doing much good. The meeting will probably close Sunday night.

Premiums.
The Howard Tailoring Co., of Chicago, is giving a pure fur felt hat with each suit sold during May. They are "A 1" hats and the latest styles. No change in prices. Fits guaranteed. Give us a trial order, as many are doing.
M. D. HUGHES, agent.

About Wat rworks.
At last meeting of the City Council a committee was appointed to look into the advisability of advertising a waterworks franchise. This committee was to report at a subsequent meeting, but it is presumed the matter will come up Monday night. It certainly will do no harm to advertise and see what a system will cost. The board is not bound to accept any bid, reserving the right to reject any and all.

To the Philippines.
Wm. O. Dunlap, the Lancaster boy who served with the 6th U. S. Cavalry at Santiago, left last week and re-enlisted at Indianapolis with the Infantry. He said he would try and get into the Sixteenth, it being the best regiment in the service. He left Indianapolis, with six recruits under him, for San Francisco, where he sailed for the Philippines. Will have friends here who wish him a safe voyage.

Decoration Day.
Tuesday was observed by the old soldiers in Lancaster, both Federal and Confederate. They assembled in Masonic Hall and marched to the Court House where Letcher Owsley delivered one of the best and most appropriate speeches we ever heard. Letcher is a born orator, and when given a good subject, cannot be surpassed by many of the oldest and experienced speakers. At the conclusion of the speech the old Vets marched to the Cemetery where many graves were strewn with freshly cut flowers.

A Lady Candidate.
Miss Mary Towles Sasseen, who is a candidate for the democratic nomination for Superintendent Public Instruction, was in town Monday in the interest of her race. She told THE RECORD that if elected she would devote her entire time to the office and instead of spending the time in the office at Frankfort, would travel over the state and visit points where she could be of any assistance in building up the schools. She is a lady thoroughly posted on school laws, is well educated and would doubtless give the schools much better attention than they generally receive.

Pollard.
Mrs. S. C. Pollard, formerly of this county, died suddenly at her home in Danville Friday morning. She was widely connected in Garrard, the family being one of the most highly respected in the county. The Danville Advocate says: Mrs. Pollard got up and ate breakfast complaining, but fell as she started to another room and died after an hour's unconsciousness. The deceased, who was Mr. Pollard's second wife, was forty-four years old, and a most estimable woman. She leaves no children.

Funeral services were conducted in the Christian church and the remains interred in the Lancaster Cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Fine Work.
As mentioned briefly in last issue, Mr. Henry G. Sandifer and his splendid team, of the Danville Masonic lodge, came over Thursday night and conferred the third degree in the Lancaster lodge. While it was generally understood they were coming, yet the exact date was not determined until a very short time before, consequently many brothers could not be notified, but as it was about fifty were present. Those who came with Bro. Sandifer were Messrs W. G. Dunlap, Chas. Smith, J. L. Frohman, Ed. Dilchay, Sam. Lyons, Herbert McGoodwin, Dolph Rice, Fitzgerald Haskins and several others.
Bro. Sandifer is conceded to be the brightest Mason in Kentucky and the work he gives is the standard by which all lodges go. He is indisputable authority. Being blessed with a wonderful memory, he has no trouble whatever in giving the long degrees, three-fourths of which falls upon the Master. Bro. Sandifer puts his whole soul in the work and no one can listen to him without making a firm resolve to try and lead a better life and be a just and upright man and Mason. Anyone who hears his work will strive to be a Mason in the true sense of the word, and not be looked upon as one who "has taken the degrees." The Danville team works together with a smoothness that is lovely to behold. Each man knows what he is to do, he does it, and never meddles with the others. At the conclusion of the meeting, Bro. Sandifer and his men were surrounded by the brethren, who warmly congratulated them upon the excellent work. The team arrived about six o'clock and all repaired to Mr. D. G. Ross' where an excellent supper was served. The evening will long be remembered by the local brethren as one of the most pleasant they ever spent.

Colored Recruits.
The War Department has wired Lt. W. T. Johnston, recruiting officer at Lexington, Ky., to enlist colored applicants for Cavalry and Infantry service, sending the former to Fort Grant, Arizona, and the latter to Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City. This is an excellent opportunity for young colored men to get into the regular Army. Recruit for white Infantry and Cavalry regiments are also wanted. Apply to LIEUT. W. T. JOHNSTON.
1-10-1f Main St. Lexington, Ky.

W. C. T. U.
The Eighth District of the Ky. W. C. T. U. will hold their Annual Convention at Berea, beginning Monday night. The exercises Monday night will consist of music, welcome addresses, responses, and an address by Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp of Lexington. On Tuesday night, Mrs. Louise S. Rounds, State President of Illinois, will deliver the address, and will assist during the day sessions of the Convention. The Convention closes Wednesday night with a Grand Gold Medal contest, participated in by young ladies from different parts of the district.
An attractive program has been prepared for the day sessions. Music, short addresses, and recitations will vary the exercises. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.
By order of the President.

The Interior Journal.
Editor W. P. Walton, in his last paper, says for some time he has been considering two questions, that of retiring from the editorial harness or turning the Journal over to his business manager, Ed. C. Walton. He has concluded to remain at its head, however, which decision will be hailed with delight by the clever editor's many friends. The subscription price of the Journal has been reduced to only $1 per year, when paid in advance. This reduction is a sweeping one for a twice-a-week paper, and we hardly see how it can be sent out for the price. The Interior-Journal is one of the best edited papers in Kentucky, and its local news is always bright and reliable. Its office is complete in every detail, being equipped with all the latest type and machinery. No one wishes the Journal more success than the writer of this item.

They Charged Upon Us.
Four Soldiers, neither bearing arms however, made a charge upon THE RECORD office Monday. They were Capt. Stone, Messrs Joe Arnold and T. J. Hatcher, ex-Confederates, and Capt. T. A. Elkin ex-Federal. We immediately ran up the white flag, and the gentlemen took possession of our works and were soon engaged in telling stories of their ups and downs during Uncle Sam's big family row. They were all at the battle of Chickamauga, and it was interesting to hear them putting their experience together, thereby forming a complete detail of the fight. As stated above we made quick surrender, as our old Mexican veteran typo, Capt. White had gone home. The old soldiers, both gray and blue, showed marked respect to Capt. Stone during his stay in Lancaster.

A Great Speech.
Capt. W. J. Stone, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, addressed a crowded house in this city Monday afternoon. Capt. Stone is a christian gentleman in every sense of the word, and it is a pleasure to be in his company. He is a man of fine personal appearance, notwithstanding he is minus a leg, which was lost in the Confederate army. Capt. Stone devoted the first part of his speech to national affairs, setting forth the principles of the democratic party and comparing them with those of the opposite side. He then came to state affairs and, for probably an hour, gave his views on questions before the people of Kentucky. He said he had been reported as having voted for gold bonds while a member of congress, but produced a copy of the Congressional Record which showed plainly the utter untruthfulness of the charge. He said "If any man will show that I cast such a vote, I will withdraw from this race and go immediately to work to help elect such man, or his friend who is a candidate for governor." He ripped, Hon. P. Watt Hardin completely up the back and his ridicule of the later and "My Cause" brought forth bursts of laughter and applause. Capt. Stone said he detested hearing men proclaimed as the "Original Free Silver Man," that the silver question dated back to the making of the constitution of the United States. He spoke at length on the money question and his arguments were clear and forcible. He had one of the finest and best behaved audiences we ever saw in the Garrard Court House, and no disorder of any kind interrupted the speaker. Many ladies were present and frequently joined in the applause. While Capt. Stone had many followers in Garrard before his coming, the speech of Monday certainly added many more to him and they will make themselves known in the county convention. If Capt. Stone is made governor the people of Kentucky will never regret having elected him.
